And What Have You

Wonder if this might not be considered political blackmail?

The directors of the Seagraves Chamber of Commerce attempted to obtain Gov. Dolph Briscoe to speak at their annual banquet. But when he declined, they contacted Mrs. Farenthold, Briscoe's opponent in the Democratic gubernatorial primary, and she agreed to the engagement.

Since these two candidates are polls apart in their political philosophy, I can only wonder how someone who would want to hear one would even consider listening to the other.

I have never been a fan of rattlesnake hunting. But have always taken a live and let live attitude about them. If communities or organizations want to hold them it was all right with me but I can get by just fine without them.

There are those who strongly oppose them on the grounds that the hunts mess up the ecology by killing off the snakes. But this has never been a complaint of mine since I figure that the less snakes there are around the better off we all are.

But it seems to me that the rattlesnake hunt at Brownwood has gone a little too far. They hold a rattlesnake sacking contest and name the world champion in this event. The winner was Cotton Dillard of Cross Plains who sacked 10 of the snakes in 31.7 seconds.

Now in this contest, ten live rattlesnakes, caught in the annual Brownwood rattlesnake roundup, are dumped into a pit. The contestant goes into the pit and with the help of a "pinner"—a golf-club like tool to pin the snake's head—tries to grab the snakes and dump them into a sack held by his partner.

Two of the contestants in this contest were hospitalized and three others were bitten or scratched but did not require hospitalization.

Now, to me at least, this whole contest makes about as much sense as putting a shell in a pistol, spinning the cylinder, pointing the gun to your head and pulling the trigger.

Maybe I am wrong, but it seems to me that there should be some kind of limit to this kind of contest.

Since oil, or the lack of it, is constantly in the news and since this oil is figured by the barrel I thought you might be interested to know just how many gallons in a barrel.

Ask the man on the street and most likely his mind would flash to the familiar steel oil drum which holds a gross amount of 55 gallons.

But you are probably not aware that a "standard barrel" is 31½ gallons, and how many of you know that the oil industry considers 42 gallons a barrel? Seems that King Henry III may have started the deal back in 1266. Old Henry was setting up weights and measures for the kingdom and wanted everything in easily divisible units.

Then along about 1866 oil producers hit on a decision that "an allowance of two gallons would be made on the gauge of each and every 40 gallons in favor of the buyer". . .thus the 42-gallon barrel.

In doing some research the other day in the Texas Almanac I found that it lists the 1972 cities sales taxes per capita. Otherwords, they have taken the amount of taxes collected for 1972, divided it by the population and it shows how much money was spent at home by local residents or by people coming into the community to make purchases.

Since most of the cities within this area have about the same average income, it would seem safe to assume that those with the higher

Flea Market Being Set Here Apr. 6

The first of several scheduled Flea Markets during the year has been announced by the Retail Trade Committee of the Hamlin BCD, according to Mrs. Robert Fowler, chairman. The Flea Market and Sidewalk sale has been set for Saturday, Apr. 6.

The committee is making special plans for local clubs and organizations to take part in the Market as well as individuals and local merchants.

Often billed as a "Downtown Garage Sale," the committee hopes that a number of organizations will use this as a money making project.

Residents from all over the area are being urged to come to Hamlin on that Saturday and make this an old fashion swap and shop day.

Tickets On Sale Now For Omar Burleson Day

Tickets to the "Friends of Omar Burleson" Day Celebration are now available at the F & M National Bank. Ticket sales to the barbecue and celebration are moving at a fast pace over the district, according to B. J. Gist, general chairman.

The celebration is scheduled for five o'clock on the afternoon of Apr. 20 at the Courthouse Square in Anson, where a bronze of the veteran Congressman will be unveiled.

The program for the celebration will include a barbecue catered by the Texas Trails Chuckwagon of Albany in connection with a musical sampler from the Albany Fandangle Troupe.

The unveiling of the bronze sculpture by Juan Dell of Lubbock will highlight the day's celebration. The bronze is to be permanently mounted on the north side of the Jones County Courthouse, in the county where Congressman Burleson was born and reared. He is now serving his 29th year in the U.S. House of Representatives.

FROM THE FILES . . .

FIFTY YEARS AGO
(March 14, 1924)

The American Legion, under the direction of Post Commander, Clem Calhoun, held its regular meeting Monday night. The meeting could clearly be defined as one of accomplishment and progress, as the Ladies' Auxiliary was organized in co-ordination with the Legion. The splendid musical program was rendered through the courtesy of Mrs. Neff and the High School Orchestra. Also, several readings of merit were given by our local talent.

It will be interesting to know that next week, near Hamlin, there will appear many prominent men of West Texas and with them will be a herd of wolf dogs, like this country has never seen before. The hunt is under the auspices of the Wichita Valley Wolf Hunters Association, which composes a lot of counties in this middle west section.

The Hamlin Fire Department requests that no one board the fire trucks, except the regular firemen, when enroute to a fire. We have experienced considerable difficulty by outsiders boarding the trucks and keeping the regular firemen off.

The Gruben residence in South Hamlin was destroyed by fire about three o'clock Sunday afternoon. Practically everything of the household effects were lost. It is thought that the fire started from an oilstove.

TWENTY YEARS AGO
(March 19, 1954)

Three judging teams will represent the Hamlin chapter of the Future Farmers of American Monday at the seventh annual Field Day and Judging Contests to be held at Abilene Christian College. More than 175 teams from Central West Texas cities had registered Wednesday for participation in the annual judging contests in livestock, poultry and grass events.

Seniors at Hamlin High School continued their hold on first place for classes making the honor roll of the first six-week period of the second semester. Seniors led the classes last period, after having trailed the freshmen for the three previous periods. There were 27 seniors on the honor roll. Juniors were second on the top ranking group with 24, followed by the sophomores with 17 and the freshmen brought up the rear with 15.

Hamlin community's response to the annual membership drive of the Red Cross is dragging miserably, reported co-chairmen as they tabulated returns from the workers late Wednesday. Only $947.17 had been turned in by workers in the residential and business sections of the town late Wednesday.

Several more parking meters for the new parallel parking system in Hamlin were installed the first of the week on Second Street, running both east and west from South Central Avenue.

TEN YEARS AGO
(March 19, 1964)

Barbara Lakey, Phyllis Scarborough and Robert Pearce were named on the All-District basketball team by the coaches of District 6-AA. Judy Jenkins was named to the girls second team and Kay Hodnett was given honorable mention. Mike Shivers and Larry Butler were listed in the honorable mention list of the boys selections.

Four members of the Hamlin FFA Chapter, Herman White, Bobby White, Gaylon Moore and Jimmy Hawkins, placed first in the San Angelo College Farm Saturday. The Hamlin team placed first in swine judging and received a nice banner for this accomplishment. Herman White tied for high individual in swine judging with a score of 150 points. He received a third place ribbon when the tie was broken.

Texas motorists, barreling along the streets and highways at a clip of 99,000 miles each minute, killed themselves at the rate of one person every three hours and 12 minutes to rack up the worst year in history for traffic tragedy in 1963.

The Lakeview Golf Club has set May 15, 16 and 17 as dates for their annual Invitational Golf Tournament. The 72-hole tourney will be match play with 16 man flights. A $10.00 entry fee will be charged.

per capita would be doing a better job of retailing than those with lower per capita sales taxes.

Quite naturally, Abilene has the highest per capita in the area with $18.71, but surprisingly enough, Ballinger is close behind with $18.08.

Out of the 16 area cities I checked that collect the city sales tax, only Clyde has a lower per capita than Hamlin. Hamlin is listed at $10.14 and Clyde at $7.16.

The 16 cities and the listed figures were: Abilene $18.71, Ballinger $18.08, Hamilton $16.10, Eastland $15.73, Breckenridge $15.58, Haskell $13.92, Stamford $13.25, Sweetwater $13.60, Munday $12.06, Knox City $11.47, Rotan $10.72, Aspermont $10.70, Anson $10.65, Roby $10.52, Hamlin $10.14, and Clyde $7.16.

Not only does this mean that the City of Hamlin has less sales tax monies per capita to help take care of the city's needs than do these other cities, but it also means that Hamlin is not generating near as much retail sales as these other towns are.

Neinda Philosopher Defends Congress
In Its Problems With A Pay Raise

Editor's note: The Neinda Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Route One comes to the defense of Congress this week, perhaps.

Dear editor:

According to the polls, members of Congress are held in rather low esteem these days, only 26 per cent of the people saying they approve of them, although it is well to keep in mind that another poll shows that about 35 per cent of the people don't even know who their Congressman or Senator is, meaning I guess you don't have to know a politician to dislike him.

Nonetheless, members of Congress do have a hard job and I'd like to point out a recent example.

Under a new idea developed a while back, members no longer are put in the awkward position of having to vote themselves a raise. A commission decides if a raise is in order and, if the President approves, the raise is automatic, unless the members vote it down. What could be neater than getting a raise and being able to go back home and tell the voters you didn't vote for it?

Well, such a situation arose last week. A raise from $42,500 a year to $47,700 was approved, with a second raise running the salary up to $52,800 year after next. No vote necessary, just sit tight and it'd be automatic.

What's so hard about that, you might ask. Nothing, if the newspapers would leave Congress alone. But newspapers started pointing out that by not voting to stop the raise, Congress actually was voting to get it. People who could remember who their Congressman was started watching to see what he'd do. Congress started feeling itchy. It's no easy job deciding between a big raise and a mad voter, this close to income tax paying time and an election coming up in the Fall.

By a 3 to 1 vote, the pay raise was declined in the Senate and a vote never got to the House. Members aren't so dumb. They know the first rule of office is to stay there.

Personally, I think they ought to have the raise. You ever tried to get by on on $42,500 a year and still keep a clear head for the critical problems facing this nation?

Yours faithfully,

The Church PLANTS and WATERS...

The church plants the seed of faith, waters and tills the soil.

These are the things that a church can do, and no more . . .

then God provides the love and life-giving essentials. The growth then depends on the type of soil . . . is it barren . . .

mediocre . . . or fertile. Your life with God will grow according to your will and desire.

"Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful. But his delight is in the law of the Lord; and in his law doth he meditate day and night. And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water."

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

THE HAMLIN HERALD, HAMLIN, TEXAS, 79520
TIPS OFFERED—

Gardening Season At Hand

Spring gardening season is at hand, and many homeowners are already preparing seedbeds and planting their favorite vegetables, reports Kirby Clayton, county agent for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Vegetable planting is regulated by the average date of the last killing frost.

Numerous vegetables which are tolerant to cold weather may be planted four or more weeks before the last frost date. These include beets, broccoli, Brussels sprouts, cabbage, carrots, lettuce, onions, Irish potatoes and turnips.

Those less hardy which should not be planted until about the time of the last frost date include snap beans,

Lima beans, sweet corn, cucumbers, cantaloupes, mustard, squash and tomatoes.

Before planting, Clayton suggests preparing the seedbed to a depth of 8 to 10 inches so that it is loose and not coarse and lumpy. Apply two to three pounds of a complete fertilizer such as 12-12-12 per 100 square feet and work it into the soil. Then form the beds for planting.

Plant as early as possible depending on the hardness of the particular vegetable crop. Select varieties well adapted to this county. Use transplants where possible to get the crop off to a head start.

When planting seed, cover them with soil three to four times their widest measurement, especially for big-seeded crops such as corn, beans, cucumbers and squash. Cover small seeds such as carrots and lettuce with one-half to one-fourth inch of soil. Keep the soil moist to enhance germination but do not overwater.

Once the crops are up, water them as needed so that the water penetrates the soil to a depth of at least six inches. Most gardens need about the same amount of moisture as delivered by one inch of rain a week during the growing season. Light sandy soils may require more frequent watering. Always water in the morning or at least not later than mid-afternoon so that plants will dry before night, advises Clayton. This helps prevent foliage diseases.

Weed control in a garden is important, and a long-handled hoe is still the best tool around for this purpose. Remove weeds as they emerge to keep down rein-festations.

Adding a mulch of straw, leaves, grass, bark, gin trash, sawdust, peat moss or other organic material around plants helps control weeds and reduces soil temperatures and moisture losses. Black plastic may also be used.

During the growing season, keep an eye on your plants to detect early signs of insect and disease problems, points out Clayton. When conditions warrant the use of insecticides and fungicides, apply only those that are recommended and approved. Always read the label on the container before using any chemical materials.

Once your vegetable crops are approaching maturity, check them closely. A vegetable's full flavor develops only at full maturity, so harvest your vegetables at peak maturity for their maximum flavor and nutritional content.

Letter to Editor

The following letters were received at the Hamlin Herald after Cub Scouts of Den 2 were guests for a tour:

Dear Mrs. Craig,
We enjoyed the tour through the Hamlin Herald. I especially enjoyed to see a real computer. Thanks again.

Love, Greg

Dear Mrs. Craig,
Thank you for the tour you gave us. Thank you for taking us in the dark room and letting us see the computer. And let us be in the paper.

Thank you,
Kevin Lewis

Dear Mrs. Craig,
Thank you for the tour to the Herald. And for putting our name in the paper. We hope you are all right. Are you? We sure hope so.

Thank you,
Davy Casey

Dear Mrs. Craig,
I think it was very nice of you to print our names in the paper. I also think it was very nice of you to take us on a tour. We all enjoyed it very much. We enjoyed going in the dark room and everything else.

Your friend,
Tony

Dear Mrs. Craig,
I'd like to write a paper like you do. I like to look at those dots on the newspaper. I wonder how the numbers are white on the real newspaper and black on the ones you copy with. In the dark room why do the lights have to be red? When we were in the dark room, Kevin accidentally knocked off one of the red light covers. I had fun at the tour.

Sincerely,
Craig Cowan

Mr. and Mrs. Trine Contreras, Steven and Isabel visited with Mr. and Mrs. Pete Gonzales in Hearne over the weekend. While they were there they visited in the home of Dr. and Mrs. E. D. Perrin in Cameron.

Bug Killer Can Be

People Killer

Bug killers can turn into people killers if not properly handled, warns the Texas Safety Association.

The safety group reminds eager spring gardeners to take time to read the entire label before opening an insecticide container. Note warnings, precautions and antidotes. Never ignore label directions to use protective clothing or equipment.

Insecticides should be stored in the original container in a safe place where children and pets cannot accidentally come into contact with them.

Empty containers should be destroyed immediately. Some child fatalities have resulted from playing with empty containers.

Keep out of the path of the insecticide mist or spray and never smoke while spraying or dusting. Cover bird baths, pet dishes and fish pools to protect them from drifting poison.

After using an insecticide wash thoroughly and remove contaminated clothing immediately.

Singing Here

There will be a Gospel singing at the First Assembly of God Church Saturday starting at 7:30 p.m., according to the pastor, the Rev. Carl Amburn. A trio from Big Spring which includes Don Houghton will be featured.

FOR PAY-AS-YOU GO

In his first term as State Legislator from your 61st District, Elmer Martin took with him into the Legislature his Pay-As-You-Go policy tested 12 years as County Judge.

Incidentally, that is when the Legislature, for the first time in 13 years met all state budget obligations without any additional taxes. And, that is another reason Rep. Martin is honestly good for a second term.

8 1/2 TRILLION KILOWATT HOURS

By the time these youngsters reach age 30 they will require an incredible total of 8 1/2 trillion kilowatt hours of electricity annually. Providing this power with as little pollution as possible is a joint effort of the member-owned Midwest Electric Cooperative and the electric industry. It will call for new generating fuels, new techniques and it will cost more money. But there's an even more pressing commitment today to furnish a dependable supply of electricity at its lowest possible price. The Midwest Electric Cooperative is meeting both demands.

6 WAYS TO CONSERVE AND SAVE ON WATER HEATERS

Normally the quantity of Hot water used in a household is about 1/4 to 1/3 of the total water usage. Here are some suggestions that can help you get the most out of your water heater.

- With a little planning, you can arrange to wash only full loads of clothing in your washer and full loads of dishes in your dishwasher. Less than full loads consumes energy and wastes water needlessly.
- To assure long life and efficiency, the water heater tank should have a small amount of water drained periodically. Once a month should be adequate. The purpose of draining water from the tank is to prevent sediment build-up in the tank bottom.
- A water heater that's old, or too small for your family needs, can be wasteful because it's working too hard and using too much energy to keep up with your hot water demands.
- It's amazing how much water a leaky faucet will drip in a month's time and if the leaking faucet is a hot water faucet, it will waste both energy and water needlessly. As an example, a faucet dripping 90 drops per minute, will waste 300 gallons per month.
- The thermostat controlling the water temperature is pre-set at the factory to deliver hot water at 150°F. This setting has proven most satisfactory from the standpoint of operating cost and household needs.
- The thermostat can be adjusted to provide warmer or cooler water temperatures. The thermostats are clearly marked for easy adjustment to increase or decrease the water temperature.

Agent Gives Tips On Cotton Disease Control

Cotton farmers can reduce disease losses and increase profits by purchasing high quality seed and planting at the proper time notes Kirby Clayton, county agent for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Five of the nine major cotton diseases in Texas are seed-borne. These include

Anthracnose, Ascochyta or wet weather blight, bacterial blight, boll rot and the seedling diseases.

The fungi and bacteria causing these diseases can be eliminated or reduced by using high-quality, acid-delinted seed that has also been treated with a fungicide, points out Clayton. The acid delinting process eliminates or reduces disease-causing organisms on the seed surface while the fungicide provides protection for the seed and seedling in the soil.

Since cotton root rot organisms require soil temperatures above 80 degrees to grow, earlier planted cotton can reduce root rot losses and maximize production, continues the agent.

The earliness complex—maturity within 120 days of planting—can be accomplished by using high quality seed that will insure a good stand with the first planting. Early maturing cotton varieties are also available.

According to Clayton, the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station has developed several strains with an earliness factor that allows earlier planting to achieve a good stand under adverse conditions. These strains, TAMCOT SP-21, 23 and 37, will achieve their maximum potential if planted seven to ten days earlier than standard varieties. They are both storm resistant and multiple disease resistant.

NEWS AND VIEWS...

And What Have You

Wonder if this might not be considered political blackmail?

The directors of the Seagraves Chamber of Commerce attempted to obtain Gov. Dolph Briscoe to speak at their annual banquet. But when he declined, they contacted Mrs. Farenthold, Briscoe's opponent in the Democratic gubernatorial primary, and she agreed to the engagement.

Since these two candidates are polls apart in their political philosophy, I can only wonder how someone who would want to hear one would even consider listening to the other.

I have never been a fan of rattlesnake hunting. But have always taken a live and let live attitude about them. If communities or organizations want to hold them it was all right with me but I can get by just fine without them.

There are those who strongly oppose them on the grounds that the hunts mess up the ecology by killing off the snakes. But this has never been a complaint of mine since I figure that the less snakes there are around the better off we all are.

But it seems to me that the rattlesnake hunt at Brownwood has gone a little too far. They hold a rattlesnake sacking contest and name the world champion in this event. The winner was Cotton Dillard of Cross Plains who sacked 10 of the snakes in 31.7 seconds.

Now in this contest, ten live rattlesnakes, caught in the annual Brownwood rattlesnake roundup, are dumped into a pit. The contestant goes into the pit and with the help of a "pinner"—a golf-club like tool to pin the snake's head—tries to grab the snakes and dump them into a sack held by his partner.

Two of the contestants in this contest were hospitalized and three others were bitten or scratched but did not require hospitalization.

Now, to me at least, this whole contest makes about as much sense as putting a shell in a pistol, spinning the cylinder, pointing the gun to your head and pulling the trigger.

Maybe I am wrong, but it seems to me that there should be some kind of limit to this kind of contest.

Since oil, or the lack of it, is constantly in the news and since this oil is figured by the barrel I thought you might be interested to know just how many gallons in a barrel.

Ask the man on the street and most likely his mind would flash to the familiar steel oil drum which holds a gross amount of 55 gallons.

But you are probably not aware that a "standard barrel" is 31½ gallons, and how many of you know that the oil industry considers 42 gallons a barrel? Seems that King Henry III may have started the deal back in 1266. Old Henry was setting up weights and measures for the kingdom and wanted everything in easily divisible units.

Then along about 1866 oil producers hit on a decision that "an allowance of two gallons would be made on the gauge of each and every 40 gallons in favor of the buyer"... thus the 42-gallon barrel.

In doing some research the other day in the Texas Almanac I found that it lists the 1972 cities sales taxes per capita. Otherwords, they have taken the amount of taxes collected for 1972, divided it by the population and it shows how much money was spent at home by local residents or by people coming into the community to make purchases.

Since most of the cities within this area have about the same average income, it would seem safe to assume that those with the higher

SELECTED FOR ADMISSION TO WEST POINT—Franklin Allen Shearer, center, holds the framed certificate showing his selection to the United States Military Academy at West Point, N. Y. He will be admitted to the academy with the class entering in July of 1974. With him are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shearer.

Frank Shearer Receives West Point Appointment

Franklin Allen Shearer, Hamlin High School senior, has been notified of his selection for appointment to the United States Military Academy at West Point, Class of 1978.

Frank was nominated to the Academy last December by Congressman Omar Burleson. New cadet training will begin at West Point, New York, on Monday, July 8.

In a framed certificate from the admissions committee, announcing his selection, it is stated that Frank will receive the equivalent of a full undergraduate scholarship, including room and board, medical and dental care, and monthly pay equal to one half the pay of a Second Lieutenant in the United States Army, and who, upon graduation from the United States Military Academy with a Bachelor of Science degree, will be commissioned in the Regular Army of the United States of America.

Frank entered Hamlin schools in the third grade when he moved here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shearer, from Buffalo Gap. When he was in the seventh and eighth grades, the family returned to Buffalo Gap. They moved back to Hamlin when he was a freshman and he attended all four years of high school here.

He was active in basketball as a freshman and sophomore and member of annual staff for the past three years.

As a sophomore, Frank was football and track manager, class secretary, vice president of Spanish Club and received the Rotary Award. His junior year he was class secretary, Member of Student Council, National Honor Society, junior play cast, and received the Rotary Award. He was also named to Who's Who in American High Schools and Outstanding Teenagers of America.

This year, he is Senior Class president, president of the National Honor Society, president of Student Council, member of senior play cast and is participating in tennis. He was also named again to Who's Who in American High Schools.

Frank was born June 7, 1956, in San Angelo. He is employed by Frank's TV, which is owned by his father. He is a member of the Hamlin Church of Christ.

The American Legion, under the direction of Post Commander, Clem Calhoun, held its regular meeting Monday night. The meeting could clearly be defined as one of accomplishment and progress, as the Ladies' Auxiliary was organized in co-ordination with the Legion. The splendid musical program was rendered through the courtesy of Mrs. Neff and the High School Orchestra. Also, several readings of merit were given by our local talent.

It will be interesting to know that next week, near Hamlin, there will appear many prominent men of West Texas and with them will be a herd of wolf dogs, like this country has never seen before. The hunt is under the auspices of the Wichita Valley Wolf Hunters Association, which composes a lot of counties in this middle west section.

The Hamlin Fire Department requests that no one board the fire trucks, except the regular firemen, when enroute to a fire. We have experienced considerable difficulty by outsiders boarding the trucks and keeping the regular firemen off.

per capita would be doing a better job of retailing than those with lower per capita sales taxes.

Quite naturally, Abilene has the highest per capita in the area with $18.71, but surprisingly enough, Ballinger is close behind with $18.08.

Out of the 16 area cities I checked that collect the city sales tax, only Clyde has a lower per capita than Hamlin. Hamlin is listed at $10.14 and Clyde at $7.16.

The 16 cities and the listed figures were: Abilene $18.71, Ballinger $18.08, Hamilton $16.10, Eastland $15.73, Breckenridge $15.58, Haskell $13.92, Stamford $13.25, Sweetwater $13.60, Munday $12.06, Knox City $11.47, Rotan $10.72, Aspermont $10.70, Anson $10.65, Roby $10.52, Hamlin $10.14, and Clyde $7.16.

Not only does this mean that the City of Hamlin has less sales tax monies per capita to help take care of the city's needs than do these other cities, but it also means that Hamlin is not generating near as much retail sales as these other towns are.

Neinda Philosopher Defends Congress In Its Problems With A Pay Raise

Editor's note: The Neinda Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Route One comes to the defense of Congress this week, perhaps.

Dear editor:

According to the polls, members of Congress are held in rather low esteem these days, only 26 per cent of the people saying they approve of them although it is well to keep in mind that another poll shows that about 35 per cent of the people don't even know who their Congressman or Senator is, meaning I guess you don't have to know a politician to dislike him.

Nonetheless, members of Congress do have a hard job and I'd like to point out a recent example.

Under a new idea developed a while back, members no longer are put in the awkward position of having to vote themselves a raise. A commission decides if a raise is in order and, if the President approves, the raise is automatic, unless the members vote it down. What could be neater than getting a raise and being able to go back home and tell the voters you didn't vote for it?

Well, such a situation arose last week. A raise from $42,500 a year to $47,700 was approved, with a second raise running the salary up to $52,800 year after next. No vote necessary, just sit tight and it'd be automatic.

What's so hard about that, you might ask. Nothing, if the newspapers would leave Congress alone. But newspapers started pointing out that by not voting to stop the raise, Congress actually was voting to get it. People who could remember who their Congressman was started watching to see what he'd do. Congress started feeling itchy. It's no easy job deciding between a big raise and a mad voter, this close to income tax paying time and an election coming up in the Fall.

By a 3 to 1 vote, the pay raise was declined in the Senate and a vote never got to the House. Members aren't so dumb. They know the first rule of office is to stay there.

Personally, I think they ought to have the raise. You ever tried to get by on on $42,500 a year and still keep a clear head for the critical problems facing this nation?

Yours faithfully,

The church plants the seed of faith, waters and tills the soil. These are the things that a church can do, and no more . . . then God provides the love and life-giving essentials. The growth then depends on the type of soil . . . is it barren . . . mediocre . . . or fertile. Your life with God will grow according to your will and desire.

"Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful. But his delight is in the law of the Lord; and in his law doth he meditate day and night. And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water."

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Gardening Season At Hand

Spring gardening season is at hand, and many homeowners are already preparing seedbeds and planting their favorite vegetables, reports Kirby Clayton, county agent for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Vegetable planting is regulated by the average date of the last killing frost.

Numerous vegetables which are tolerant to cold weather may be planted four or more weeks before the last frost date. These include beets, broccoli, Brussels sprouts, cabbage, carrots, lettuce, onions, Irish potatoes and turnips.

Those less hardy which should not be planted until about the time of the last frost date include snap beans,

Lima beans, sweet corn, cucumbers, cantaloupes, mustard, squash and tomatoes.

Before planting, Clayton suggests preparing the seedbed to a depth of 8 to 10 inches so that it is loose and not coarse and lumpy. Apply two to three pounds of a complete fertilizer such as 12-12-12 per 100 square feet and work it into the soil. Then form the beds for planting.

Plant as early as possible depending on the hardness of the particular vegetable crop. Select varieties well adapted to this county. Use transplants where possible to get the crop off to a head start.

When planting seed, cover them with soil three to four times their widest measurement, especially for big-seeded crops such as corn, beans, cucumbers and squash. Cover small seeds such as carrots and lettuce with one-half to one-fourth inch of soil. Keep the soil moist to enhance germination but do not overwater.

Once the crops are up, water them as needed so that the water penetrates the soil to a depth of at least six inches. Most gardens need about the same amount of moisture as delivered by one inch of rain a week during the growing season. Light sandy soils may require more frequent watering. Always water in the morning or at least not later than mid-afternoon so that plants will dry before night, advises Clayton. This helps prevent foliage diseases.

Weed control in a garden is important, and a long-handled hoe is still the best tool around for this purpose. Remove weeds as they emerge to keep down rein-festations.

Adding a mulch of straw, leaves, grass, bark, gin trash, sawdust, peat moss or other organic material around plants helps control weeds and reduces soil temperatures and moisture losses. Black plastic may also be used.

During the growing season, keep an eye on your plants to detect early signs of insect and disease problems, points out Clayton. When conditions warrant the use of insecticides and fungicides, apply only those that are recommended and approved. Always read the label on the container before using any chemical materials.

Once your vegetable crops are approaching maturity, check them closely. A vegetable's full flavor develops only at full maturity, so harvest your vegetables at peak maturity for their maximum flavor and nutritional content.

Additional information on gardening is available at the county Extension office, adds Clayton.

We enjoyed the tour through the Hamlin Herald. I especially enjoyed to see a real computer. Thanks again.

Dear Mrs. Craig,

Thank you for the tour to the Herald. And for putting our name in the paper. We hope you are all right. Are you? We sure hope so. Thank you, Davy Casey

Dear Mrs. Craig,

I think it was very nice of you to print our names in the paper. I also think it was very nice of you to take us on a tour. We all enjoyed it very much. We enjoyed going in the dark room and everything else. Your friend, Tony

Dear Mrs. Craig,

I'd like to write a paper like you do. I like to look at those dots on the newspaper. I wonder how the numbers are white on the real newspaper and black on the ones you copy with. In the dark room why do the lights have to be red? When we were in the dark room, Kevin accidentally knocked off one of the red light covers. I had fun at the tour. Sincerely, Craig Cowan

Mr. and Mrs. Trine Contreras, Steven and Isabel visited with Mr. and Mrs. Pete Gonzales in Hearne over the weekend. While they were there they visited in the home of Dr. and Mrs. E. D. Perrin in Cameron.

Bug Killer Can Be People Killer

Bug killers can turn into people killers if not properly handled, warns the Texas Safety Association.

The safety group reminds eager spring gardeners to take time to read the entire label before opening an insecticide container. Note warnings, precautions and antidotes. Never ignore label directions to use protective clothing or equipment.

Insecticides should be stored in the original container in a safe place where children and pets cannot accidentally come into contact with them.

Empty containers should be destroyed immediately. Some child fatalities have resulted from playing with empty containers.

Keep out of the path of the insecticide mist or spray and never smoke while spraying or dusting. Cover bird baths, pet dishes and fish pools to protect them from drifting poison.

After using an insecticide wash thoroughly and remove contaminated clothing immediately.

STATE REP. ELMER MARTIN FOR PAY-AS-YOU GO

In his first term as State Legislator from your 61st District, Elmer Martin took with him into the Legislature his Pay-As-You-Go policy tested 12 years as County Judge.

Incidentally, that is when the Legislature, for the first time in 13 years met all state budget obligations without any additional taxes. And, that is another reason Rep. Martin is honestly good for a second term.

8 1/2 TRILLION KILOWATT HOURS

By the time these youngsters reach age 30 they will require an incredible total of 8 1/2 trillion kilowatt hours of electricity annually. Providing this power with as little pollution as possible is a joint effort of the member-owned Midwest Electric Cooperative and the electric industry. It will call for new generating fuels, new techniques and it will cost more money. But there's an even more pressing commitment today to furnish a dependable supply of electricity at its lowest possible price. The Midwest Electric Cooperative is meeting both demands.

6 WAYS TO CONSERVE AND SAVE ON WATER HEATERS

Normally the quantity of Hot water used in a household is about 1/4 to 1/3 of the total water usage. Here are some suggestions that can help you get the most out of your water heater.

1. With a little planning, you can arrange to wash only full loads of clothing in your washer and full loads of dishes in your dishwasher. Less than full loads consumes energy and wastes water needlessly.

2. To assure long life and efficiency, the water heater tank should have a small amount of water drained periodically. Once a month should be adequate. The purpose of draining water from the tank is to prevent sediment build-up in the tank bottom.

3. A water heater that's old, or too small for your family needs, can be wasteful because it's working too hard and using too much energy to keep up with your hot water demands.

4. It's amazing how much water a leaky faucet will drip in a month's time and if the leaking faucet is a hot water faucet, it will waste both energy and water needlessly. As an example, a faucet dripping 90 drops per minute, will waste 300 gallons per month.

5. The thermostat controlling the water temperature is pre-set at the factory to deliver hot water at 150°F. This setting has proven most satisfactory from the standpoint of operating cost and household needs.

6. The thermostat can be adjusted to provide warmer or cooler water temperatures. The thermostats are clearly marked for easy adjustment to increase or decrease the water temperature.

Agent Gives Tips On Cotton Disease Control

Cotton farmers can reduce disease losses and increase profits by purchasing high quality seed and planting at the proper time notes Kirby Clayton, county agent for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Five of the nine major cotton diseases in Texas are seed-borne. These include

Anthracnose, Ascochyta or wet weather blight, bacterial blight, boll rot and the seedling diseases.

The fungi and bacteria causing these diseases can be eliminated or reduced by using high-quality, acid-delinted seed that has also been treated with a fungicide, points out Clayton. The acid delinting process eliminates or reduces disease-causing organisms on the seed surface while the fungicide provides protection for the seed and seedling in the soil.

Since cotton root rot organisms require soil temperatures above 80 degrees to grow, earlier planted cotton can reduce root rot losses and maximize production, continues the agent.

The earliness complex—maturity within 120 days of planting—can be accomplished by using high quality seed that will insure a good stand with the first planting. Early maturing cotton varieties are also available.

According to Clayton, the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station has developed several strains with an earliness factor that allows earlier planting to achieve a good stand under adverse conditions. These strains, TAMCOT SP-21, 23 and 37, will achieve their maximum potential if planted seven to ten days earlier than standard varieties. They are both storm resistant and multiple disease resistant.
